2013-2014 Annual Appeal

Each year we come to you in the spring to renew our appeal to our friends for support of the Colonial Theatre. Your generosity makes our work possible and any gift, no matter how large or small, is gratefully received.

The Colonial Theatre is an operating professional theatre. We produce our own shows, as well as present other companies, and are committed to being the home for artistic-entrepreneurial people. Our programs include productions, community events, special events, and the Colonial Theatre School.

We are grateful for the $3,429,348 in grants, gifts, and contributions we received during our fiscal year. These gifts came to us from local foundations, corporations, government agencies, local businesses, individual donors, and our audience. We are committed to using these funds wisely and we are pleased to share the results of our efforts.

Moving forward

We’ve been busy these last few months. We’ve worked our way through a major renovation. Last month, for the first time in many years, the theatre’s ceiling was painted and the light fixtures were cleaned and repaired. In the evenings, the theatre was filled with the sound of saws and hammers. The theatre is in the works. By the spring we will have lots of improvements to share with you.

We are looking forward to the next season and we are planning many exciting events. We hope you can join us for our opening show, On The Town, which opens in October.

Mission Statement
The mission of the Colonial is to provide people of all ages with a dynamic and fun place to celebrate and enjoy the performing and visual arts, while promoting the cultural, economic and civic life.

The Colonial Theatrical Organization
To this end, ACT presents film, live events and drama to entertain and inspire our patrons. We believe that our collaboration with other organizations allows us to reach a broader audience and to provide a diverse and comprehensive schedule of entertainment. We are committed to maintaining and growing our relationships with other organizations in order to bring a variety of talent to the Colonial and this great town.

A message from the President
The world of documentary filmmaking produces some really big film weekends. I think every filmmaker can attest to how much work goes into the planning, shooting, editing, producing and marketing a project. Often times, if you are not in the final theatrical run on a film, it is hard as a filmmaker to see your project come to life. For a long time, we have been very grateful that Thanksgiving has always been the end of the theatrical run on a film. But something happened in 2014 to change that pattern.

Ken Thomas, President of the Colonial

Dear Friends,

This year our concert programming decreased quite a bit due to show availability and we had to make some decisions on which concerts to bring to our patrons. The Runout sold out in less than ten minutes!! After a raucous Blobfest 14 was our best ever. The Runout sold out in less than ten minutes!! After a raucous Blobfest in the year 2014, but Yes it is a bit confusing, the 15th Blobfest is in the year 2015!

This past summer was great fun. Our collaboration with Pickering Creek Conservation Trust continues to bring for their lives as a nod to the famous scene in the movie “Female Sexual Shame Hurts Land” to name only a few. You were the main attraction so you don’t miss a thing.Blobfest 14 was our best ever. The Runout sold out in less than ten minutes!! After a raucous

This is the time of year at the Colonial when we take a look back at the previous year and reflect on all that has happened. We take pride in the fact that we have brought together the best talent to bring film, music, art and performance into our community. We are grateful for all the support that we have received.

The past year has been an exciting one for the Colonial! We have welcomed many people into our sphere, and we are excited to share the highlights that made 2013-14 a year to remember.

Film Programming

For many years, the Colonial Theatre has been a cornerstone of cultural, economic and civic life. Promoting the Colonial Theatre and the region by restoring the landmark of Phoenixville’s historic business district.

September 2014

The Blob

Blobfest 14 was our best ever. The Runout sold out in less than ten minutes!! After a raucous party that included a costume contest, whisky distillery presentation and the world’s most popular cheesesteak, an estimated 5,000 people descended upon downtown Phoenixville’s Commercial Street to celebrate. The staff could not provide the variety and creativity that you experience at the Colonial. For example: TEDxPhoenixville Committee, Blobfest Committee, Classic Film Committee, Horror and Cult Film Committee and Special Events Committee.

Our sponsors were wonderful and included Pickering Creek Conservation Trust, Fresh Start Development Company, LLC, Cary Leptuck and Nancy Corson, Ranney and Terri Moran, Eleanor and Stock Illoway, Mrs. J. Maxwell Moran, Mrs. Joseph C. English, and the McDevitt family. A special thank you to Riannon Walsh, author of “Sex, Drugs and Rock & Roll: It’s Not What You Think!”

The theme of TEDxPhoenixville 2014 gave organizers, presenters and attendees a broad backdrop on which to paint ideas. Our eye-opening, educational and inspired talks included “Female Sexual Shame Hurts Us All,” and “Lessons from the Land” to name only a few. You can watch all of our talks at TEDxPhoenixville.com.

We so look forward to the extra space next door. It will guarantee more of all of you make to our efforts, without which our work would be impossible. Over the past many years, your gifts are important and have been a big reason for our success these years.

Tickets available at www/blobfest.com at a rate of $100. All proceeds will go to support ACT’s community programs.
Mission Statement

The mission of the Association for Community Theatre (ACT) is to create and inspire a collective owning of our cultural assets. ACT's mission is to advance and preserve the essential role of live theatre, music, dance and other arts in our region.

To this end, ACT presents film, live theatre, music, dance and other community events in the heart of the Phoenixville Business District.

Dear Friends,

August 31, 2014 marked the completion of fifteen successful years as the stewards of the Colonial Theatre and the beginning of the next fifteen years as we build on the momentum of the past fifteen. This year our concert programming decreased quite a bit due to show availability and scheduling conflicts. It is interesting to see what impact that has on our film programming.

The campaign to renovate the 1925 bank building is in the works. You will find more information on that in our upcoming report. The new plaza is taking shape and will hopefully be ready for the next concert season. The Bank is scheduled for a complete renovation. It will be a wonderful addition to the Colonial and the Phoenixville Business District.

It is always great to see you here enjoying the programming at the Colonial and this great town. Thank you for your support and enjoy this reflection on our past year.

As this year comes to a close, we are looking forward to the opportunities that lie ahead for us all in the coming year.

A message from the President

The President of the Association for Community Theatre (ACT) for the past three years, Chris Garofalo, has decided that it is time to move on to new challenges. He has, however, agreed to continue to serve as a consultant for ACT.

To that end, ACT presents film, live theatre, music, dance and other community events in the heart of the Phoenixville Business District.

Join us at one of our traditions in this coming year. Meet some new people, see old friends and remember the great feeling of being a part of the Colonial Theatre experience.
Mission Statement

The mission of the Colonial Theatre is to provide a cultural center for the community that celebrates the arts and supports staying power of our enduring landmark. Our mission will be realized through the provision of high quality entertainment, educational programming, and community events in the heart of Phoenixville’s historic downtown. The Colonial’s goal is to bring both a full schedule of concerts and great film in the same week.

September 2014

A message from the President

The subject of this year’s annual report is the success stories we accomplished in 2014. Because of our devoted audience, we are able to continue what we do and to do it well. Our theater attracts a diverse audience who come together to enjoy a variety of shows and events. The Colonial offers something for everyone, and we know that we’re not only providing entertainment, but also an opportunity to gather, connect, and share our love for the arts with one another.

Mary Lou Sterge

Executive Director

Film Programming

The Colonial Theatre strives to bring people together by offering a variety of film options. We carefully select films that will attract a diverse audience and provide a range of entertainment for all ages. Our focus is on providing a high-quality viewing experience, and we are committed to preserving the integrity of the cinematic experience.

Recent Films

- The Last Emperor
- The Artist
- Life of Pi
- Girl with the Dragon Tattoo
- Beasts of the Southern Wild
- Red
- The Grandmaster
-数目方程式
- 江湖巨鲨
- The Theory of Everything
- The Hobbit

We are proud to offer a wide range of film programming throughout the year, which includes both classic and contemporary films. We work closely with filmmakers and distributors to bring the best films to our audience. Our goal is to provide a platform for filmmakers to showcase their work and to provide an opportunity for audiences to experience new and exciting films.

Special Events

Blobfesst

August is filled with the excitement of Blobfest, our annual celebration of the Blob and other horror movie classics. This event is a wonderful collaboration between the Colonial Theatre and the Blob Fans USA. This year’s Blobfest was our best ever with the Runout film of The Blob being sold out in less than ten minutes. The Blob is a true classic, and our Blobfest events provide a unique opportunity for fans to come together and share their passion for this iconic film.

The Blobfests include a variety of special events, such as screenings of classic horror movies, meet-and-greets with Blob fans, and special guest appearances. These events are a great way to bring the Blob community together and to celebrate the enduring appeal of this beloved movie.

In addition to Blobfest, the Colonial Theatre hosts a variety of other special events throughout the year, including film festivals, book readings, and other cultural events. These events provide a rich and diverse program for our audience, and they help to ensure that we continue to be a vibrant and active cultural hub.

Our mission is to preserve and promote the cultural heritage of Phoenixville by providing a space for people to come together and enjoy a variety of arts and entertainment. We are grateful for the support of our audience, and we look forward to continuing our mission in the years to come.

Mary Foote, Executive Director

2013-2014 Annual Appeal

Our campaign to renovate the 1925 bank building adjacent to the Colonial Theatre has been made possible by the generosity of many outstanding individuals and organizations. We are grateful for the many contributions, including $1.6 million in pledges, that have been made to this appeal. These are gifts made as of the end of 2014.

Lights were replaced, bathrooms were made accessible, and the façade was cleaned and repaired. In the evenings, the façade was lit with the help of LED lighting and a generator. In the meantime, restoration of the façade was completed.
