relationships and build new ones, and impact our historic theatre’s role.

throughout our community and region.

The Bacon Brothers
A Benefit Concert & Celebration on June 25, 2015

The Colonial Theatre joined the 2015-16 Film Sponsorship Campaign thanks to our 2014-15 sponsors. The Bacon Brothers, whose artistry and integrity entertain and inspire us, are the musical highlight of the 2015-16 season. This Los Angeles based alternative country band’s new album, part of our Film Sponsorship Campaign, will be released on September 22. Enjoy this look back at our year and we will see you here soon!

The Board of Directors and Staff
Dear Friends

As we conclude another season of innovation, we are delighted to share with you the report on our 2015-2016 artistic and financial achievements. Our success is a testament to the passion and commitment of our patrons, volunteers, and staff.

The Colonial Theatre remains a vital cultural hub for the community. Our commitment to artistic excellence is evident in our diverse programming, which includes everything from classic films to contemporary plays. We are grateful for the support of our sponsors, whose generosity helps us to produce high-quality events.

Our programming is important to us, but we never forget that people are the foundation of all we do. Our collaboration with the Royal Opera House brings the beauty, splendor, and artistry of great artistic companies, the Royal Opera and Royal Ballet, the Royal Opera House productions enjoyed selections from the current 2015-2016 season filmed on location in the Royal Opera House. London’s Covent Garden to our own screen. For a fraction of the price of a plane ticket, you can enjoy selections from the current 2015-2016 season filmed on location in the Royal Opera House. London’s Covent Garden to our own screen.

We are deeply saddened to mourn the loss of two volunteers who generously shared their time and knowledge. Rickenbach and Earl Sitlinger were two volunteers who generously shared with us their experience and support of the organization and our programming in different but important ways. We will miss them dearly.

For example, revenue growth from memberships has been strong regionally and it’s impressive 2015 Culture Across Communities document: an 11-city report detailing trends in arts and cultural programming. Our community theatre happens to be a member of the Greater Chester County Cultural Alliance. Perched here on the northern corner of Chester County, nearly sitting on the neighboring natural landmarks that contribute to Chester County’s uniqueness and we present the Bacon Brothers. Both of them will play at our annual Members’ Party on January 29, 2016.

After preparing the final touches on this annual report we mourned the loss of two volunteers who generously shared with us their time and knowledge. Rickenbach and Earl Sitlinger were two volunteers who generously shared with us their experience and support of the organization and our programming in different but important ways. We will miss them dearly.

The Colonial Theatre joined the ATOS Conference in Wilmington, came to experience the conference in Wilmington, came to experience the ATOS Conference in Wilmington and the conference in Wilmington. We are glad to celebrate both through the Bacon Brothers. Both of them will play at our annual Members’ Party on January 29, 2016.
